

UPCOMING EVENT

INTERNATIONAL MARTIAL ARTS COMPETITION

Dear Nuclerians

Within a week, our annual "International Martial Arts Competition" event takes place. Martial Arts practitioners from all over the United Branded Nations are invited to participate. The event starts on Monday, December 5, and lasts until Friday, December 9. On Friday, our final competition will decide who can crown himself the ultimate winner. Below, the participants can find our rules to attend the event, the planning of the workshops...As a citizen of Nucleria, you can buy a ticket for the thrilling competition. You can find the relevant information in this newsletter.

FOR PARTICIPANTS

A couple of weeks ago, you received an invitation to our event. On the back of the invitation, you can find your access code to confirm your participation on our website. If you haven't done that, please go to www.internationalmartialartsevent.nu/participation. If you've done this successfully, you should have received a confirmation mail. Bring this to the event! Without that mail, our staff won't be able to grant you access.

Our event takes place in our National Maddox Arena (in Areb). Every participant will be staying in our Empire Hotel nearby. Your code also gives you access to confirm your stay and pay for your accommodation. For everything to run smoothly, here are some important rules:

- Only small bags will be allowed into the National Maddox Arena.
- All visitors will be subject to a security search. Please don't bring any alcohol, drugs, explosives, flammable products, any kind of weapon, glass...If you do carry one of these, you will be refused entry and you will be taken into custody by our security service.
- Don't take any pictures. We highly value our privacy.

You can find all the rules on our website: www.internationalmartialartsevent.nu/rules. Our program is shown in the table below. There is no need to register for a specific workshop.
